So, What's The Catch?

This is the standard Studio + Engineer session at an introductory price, for genuinely new customers only.
Same studio. Same engineer. Same equipment. You are booking the session that costs £75 an hour for returning customers, at half price on your first visit. A low cost podcast studio in London that still records like a professional one. See our professional podcast studio hire in London page for the full setup.

In plain English: you must be genuinely new to NextMedia London. One three-hour session, one date. Half price on your first visit is the whole offer.

- Dedicated on-site engineer
- Standard two-camera setup
- Up to two broadcast microphones
- Professional lighting
- Live camera and audio monitoring
- Technical setup and troubleshooting
- Recording management by the engineer
- Raw files within 24 hours

Do I Qualify?

Never recorded at NextMedia London before? You qualify. That is the whole test.

NEXT MEDIA LONDON

Special Offer

- You are booking three consecutive hours on one date.
- You (or your company) are paying for the session directly.
- The booking is in your own name and business details.

You don't qualify if

- You have previously recorded here as host, co-host, guest, speaker, or participant.
- You want to split the three hours over multiple visits.
- You are using a colleague's name to access a first-time rate.

The Maths, In The Open

Premium recording. Introductory price

The same product, side by side. This is what the standard Studio + Engineer session costs any customer, and this is what your first 3-hour session costs.

The Studio, On Camera

This is the studio you'll be recording in

£37.50/hour doesn't mean a self-service booth. It's the same acoustically treated studio and the same recording setup used across every session at NextMedia London. Watch the showreel, and see the setups you can choose from.

Special Offer

Same acoustically treated room, same Sony FX3 multicamera system, same Shure SM7B and RØDE PodMic microphones, same engineer at the desk.

Optional Upgrades

Upgrade your first session for half price too

Every eligible studio add-on is also 50% off for the introductory 3-hour session. Only what you actually need, at half the standard rate. Add these during checkout.
